

Missionary Archives, the Pacific

The importance of missionary archives as a primary source continues to grow. IDC Publishers has now selected from a total of nine large missionary archives on microfiche, all materials related to missionary activities in the Pacific. They derive from nine large missionary archives, each item contains a reference to the issuing society or organization.

The documents provide details on eighteenth-, nineteenth-, and twentieth-century missionary endeavours of Western Protestant individuals and organizations in the Pacific.

The listing on the following pages is organized by main region, subregion, and by country.

No. of titles: 158
No. of microfiches: 5,652

It is also possible to order selected titles or subsections. The latter are:
